Fundraising Event - April 2010

Nigel Woffindin, who donated £500 to the school at the Halloween Monkey See Event is organising a formal fundraising dinner at the Ramada Hotel in Watford on Friday 16th April 2010. In his capacity as this year's President of the Watford Insurance Institute, he has chosen Corbets Tey School as his charity to receive half the money raised from the proceeds of the dinner. Monkey See have been provisionally booked to provide live music. There will be guest speakers, a Toast Master to keep events on track, a 4 course meal and drinks at the table as well as a bar that will be open until the small hours of the morning. Tickets are £50 per head but if a table of 10 is booked, then it will cost a total of £450. There is also a raffle and once again, half the money raised will be going to the school.

Nigel would like to invite along any parents and staff who want to attend. If people want to stay the night, a concession has been arranged on the hotel rooms, which will include breakfast. The price of which is still to be finalised.

Normally these are good networking evenings for anyone who is associated with the insurance industry be it insurance companies, solicitors, brokers, loss assessors etc. but this year they are extending the invitation to "the outside world" and with "Monkey See" at the helm it will be a very enjoyable evening and raise lots of money for the school!

If anyone is interested in attending this event, please contact:

Susan Cumbers on 07920 514576 or s.cumbers@corbetsteyschool.org.uk. We are very grateful to Nigel for his continued generosity to the school.
