

By Lauren
Englishyear11

Science room

In this area you will find a whiteboard and a projector. Lots of posters and books. In this room pupils use the internet to find out information about animals where they live and what they eat. The pupils do this activity and they talk about animals and ask questions.

Using the internet to help answer the questions. I like this because I like to find out about animals. Also the teachers make the lessons fun.